Isabella Daniels moved to Harrison (Winnebago) IL with her children after she became a widow. On 24 Feb. 1848 she mar. as his 2nd wife, Stephen Mack. NO issue from this marriage, as Mack's last child was born and died 1847, same day as the mother, Mack's 1st wife.

Some of Isabella's children were in Iowa for 1860 Census. Have no idea where Isabella went after she left Rockton. SHE IS LISTED ON THE 1850 CENSUS WITH SEVERAL MACK AND SEVERAL DANIELS CHILDREN! She had large amounts of property to dispose of as she was an heir of Mack.

Our ancestor, Francis A. Daniels, enlisted in the Iowa infantry during the Civil War. After discharge, he returned to Chicago where he was married; then after a logging camp in northern Michigan, took up residence in New Troy, where he remained the rest of his life. Have no idea why he settled there.

ered one of the strongest in the county. William Stocking, who is at its head, is an old citizen of the county, a careful business man, but with the energy and push that will make a success of any business. The bank was organized Sept, 1, 1881, as the successor of the First National Bank of Rochelle. Its capital of $50,000 is all paid in and it now has a surplus of $15,000. The stockholders are men of large private property and well-know business integrity. In addition to the capital, they are liable individually to depositors for all they are worth. It is the policy of the management to increase the capital each year by allowing the earnings to accumulate until they create a surplus fund of $50,000. The business is conducted with a view to the security of depositors, rather than to large profits. The bank has a first-class vault and safe, with a Yale time lock. Vault room for the safe keeping of valuable papers is furnished free of charge.

The Rochelle National Bank is the outgrowth of the old banking house of E. T. Hunt & Co., which was succeeded by W. E. Lewis and later by J. M. Mallery. While the latter was engaged in the business a National bank was organized, under the name af the Rochelle National Bank, with I. M. Mallery as President, and J. T. Miller, Cashier. The charter of the bank bears date Dec. 9, 1872. The Rochelle National Bank has the confidence of the people in a remarkable degree and has been very successful. The capital stock remains at $50,000, but it has accumulated a surplus of $20,000. Its earnings are quite large and its deposits average about $200,000. M. D. Hathaway is President. The Directors are M. D. Hathaway, Emanuel Hibb, Frank Carey, William Stocking, John Brown, Thos. G. Southworth and William H. King.

FORRESTON TOWNSHIP.

IN the extreme northwestern part of the county lies the township of Forreston, bounded on the north by Stephenson County, on the west by Carroll County, on the east by Maryland Township, and on the south by Lincoln and Brookville townships. The township of Forreston is almost exclusively prairie, White Oak grove, lying a little west of the village of Forreston, being the only timber in it. To this grove came Isaac Chambers, in 1831, with the design of effecting here a permanent settlement, but concluding there was not enough timber he went to the grove lying on the line between Brookville Township and Carroll County, which was given the name of Chambers' Grove.

In 1838 Jacob Hilsinger is remembered living at the grove. When he first located there or when he left is not known by those interviewed. Matthew Blair remembers the log cabin in the grove, some years after, which was then unoccupied, and states that hunting parties would occupy it over night. It is believed that when the survey of the Illinois Central Railroad was made, there was not a single person living in the present township limits.

In 1852 Orville, Samuel and Ransom Bailey located in the north part of the township, their homesteads being upon the county line, the site of the village of Baileyville forming a part. After the railroad was surveyed, others came in, but it was not until the cars had begun regularly to run that any large numbers came to make for themselves a home. The villages of Forreston and Baileyville were laid out, business houses started, and farms were soon opened.

At this time the territory comprising the township formed part of Brookville. The settlement rapidly increasing, in the fall of 1856 a meeting was held at Brookville for the purpose of organizing the township. The Baileyville people proposed the name of Medora, while the Forreston people asked that it should be called after their village. The majority favored Forreston and this it was called.

Forreston.

LESS than a third of a century ago the site of the village of Forreston was a wild prairie and for miles around there was no sign of civilization. A single log cabin standing in the grove was the only evidence that man had been here. The iron horse came thundering along and soon, as if by magic, a beautiful village arose, the country round about was dotted over with farm houses, churches, school houses, and the entire appearance of the country was changed.

Geo. W. Hewitt was the owner of the original town plat and laid out the village in the fall of 1854. Several other additions were subsequently made, two by the Railroad Company, three by Mr. Hewitt, and one by John Meyer.

The first buildings erected were a depot and a house for boarding railroad employes. These were erected in the fall of 1854. In the winter following John J. Hewitt erected a small warehouse for grain and purchased and shipped the first from this point. These were all the buildings erected on the town plat in 1854. Early in the spring of 1855, or late in the winter previous, a German by the name of Shuey erected a building designed for a stable, but into which he moved his family until he could erect a dwelling house. When John J. Hewitt and others came in the early spring of 1855, Mr. Shuey was living in this stable, and here he boarded a number of the early settlers.

The next building erected was also during the early spring of 1855, by Mr. Daniels, who opened a small stock of groceries therein. Mr. Daniels was the first postmaster. He remained in business but a short time.

Theodore Hewitt, a son of the founder of the place, erected the first dwelling house in the place in the spring of 1855. This house was framed in Chicago and was soon raised after the material was on the ground. It was used as a tavern. Mr. Hewitt died in the summer of 1855 of typhoid fever, and was the first adult person to die in the village or probably in the township.

Henry Hiller erected the next house, a two story frame structure, the lower part used for mercantile purposes, while the upper was used as a dwelling for his family. Mr. Hiller's store was the first of any consequence, the stock of Mr. Daniels being rather small. Mr. Hiller sold out to Mr. Woodruff, the latter, in turn, selling to David Reinhart, in 1858.

Samuel Mitchell and Matthew Blair also came the same season, erected dwelling houses and a store building, in which they opened a stock of groceries, and continued the business till 1858.

Geo. W. Hewitt erected the first brick house in 1855, which he used as a dwelling. Mr. Hewitt died October, 1871.

The first child born in the village is supposed to have been Thomas P., son of Matthew Blair, born March 20, 1856. Thomas died when eight years of age.

The first drug store was started in 1856 by Frank Barker.

The first hardware store was started by Abraham Sager, about 1857. John W. Cahill was an early dealer in this line.

Other business enterprises were started in 1855, or soon afterwards, and Forreston became a village of considerable importance.

As already stated, John J. Hewitt erected a small warehouse and shipped the first grain from this station. Aaron Middlekauff and Martin Heller erected another warehouse near the railroad in 1855. J. B. Allen erected one in 1857. The first regular elevator was erected by Jacob Rodermel, though before his was built Mr. Hewitt had put up a novel elevator, consisting of an inclined plane, with a car in which to throw the grain from the wagon. A team was hitched onto the car, and by means of a chain attached to the car and over a pulley at the top of the building, the grain was hoisted to the top and dumped into the building. The present elevator, which has a capacity of 28,000 bushels, was erected in 1875 by Wm. Hewitt. Steam power is used in carrying the grain to the top of the building. Wm. Poole purchased the elevator in 1882, and is now engaged in the grain trade. This is one of the best points for grain on the Central Road.

In 1857 Fred Meyer began shoemaking, and was followed in a short time by John Lang, who yet continues to peg away.

Thomas Botdorf came in 1855 and erected a blacksmith shop, soon afterwards adding a wagon shop. About 1858 John J. Hewitt and B. F. Emrick opened a stock of general merchandise, but sold out in 1859 to C. M. Haller, who continued it a number of years. Mr. Haller for many years has been engaged in the drug trade.

The house erected by Theodore Hewitt was for many years used as a hotel. In 1857 the Forreston House was erected, and soon after what is now known as the Central House. The hotels of the place are an honor to the village.

In manufactories the village has never made the progress desired by many. The blacksmith shop of Thomas Botdorf soon developed into a first-class wagon and carriage manufactory, and for many years a very large business was done by the proprietor. In 1868 Mr. Botdorf sold to Salter & Hunter, who continued till 1873, when the present firm of Salter & Blair was formed. The firm is well known, and its work is always first class. A corn-planter manufactory, a planing-mill and a flouring-mill have also been operated here.

POST OFFICE.

The post office was established here in the spring of 1855, with Wm. F. Daniels as Postmaster. He held the office but a short time, and was succeeded by Samuel Mitchell, who served till 1861, when Matthew Blair was appointed, and continued in the office four years. Samuel Rockwood was the next incumbent, and was succeeded in turn by John C. Galbraith, Dr. Thomas Winston and Dr. J. D. Covell, the latter receiving his commission in the fall of 1885.

BANKS.

J. B. Kimball and B. C. Whitlock started a private bank in 1867, known as the Bank of Forreston. They continued about four months when J. J. Hewitt purchased Whitlock's interest, and the firm of Kimball & Hewitt continued about one year when J. J. Hewitt purchased Kimball's interest and continued alone until 1872, when he sold to Reuben Wagner, of Polo. Mr. Wagner secured as a partner Mr. McClure, the firm of Wagner & McClure continuing some six years, when Mr. Wagner became sole proprietor, continuing the business alone until his failure, in the summer of 1885.

The Farmers & Traders' Bank was started by J. J. Hewitt June 1, 1880, in a room over the Bank of Forreston. In 1882 Mr. Hewitt erected the present bank building, which is well suited to the business, and moved thereto. This bank has always had the confidence of the community, and its business has been uniformly good. Chas. McCullough was the first clerk, or cashier, and remained with Mr. Hewitt one and a half years. T. D. Hewitt, a son of the proprietor, was the next cashier and served up to June, 1885, when he retired to take charge of some mining operations. D. Scott Garver is the present cashier.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

The first school house in the village was erected in 1856. It was a frame structure, and is still standing, but has not been used for school purposes for a number of years. Miss Maria Blair was the first teacher in this house. She was followed by Thomas J. Hewitt and A. Q. Allen, the latter being well known as the first teacher in Mt. Morris. In 1867 the present three story brick building was erected, at a cost of $1~~5~~,000. Among those serving as principal of the public schools of this place are J. L. Spear, J. W. Clinton, now editor of the Polo Press, G. M. Glenn, M. L. Seymour, Geo. Blount, now Superintendent of Public Schools in Macomb, J. Lawson Wright and O. S. Davidson, the latter being the present Principal. Mr. Davidson is now in his third year, and is an efficient Principal. He is assisted by Miss Franc Pierce, Miss Fannie E. Countryman, Miss Lizzie L. Hiller, Miss Belle Albright, Miss Sylvia Balsbaugh and Miss Alice Hauptfuehrer. The schools are very prosperous. One room is rented in the Evangelical church.

RELIGIOUS.

The first religious services were held in the depot building, in the winter of 1854-5, and were conducted by Rev. Wm. Underwood, a Methodist Episcopal divine. Societies were soon organized, houses of worship erected, and now the village boasts of the following named organizations: Methodist Episcopal, Lutheran, German Reformed, Evangelical Association, Dutch Reformed and United Brethren in Christ.

The Methodist Episcopal Church was the first organized. A class was formed here in 1856, and services were held in the depot building, where they continued till the erection of the school building. It was first made a part of Crane's Grove Circuit. Meetings were held in the school house for a few years, and then in United Brethren Church till 1864, when their house of worship was erected and dedicated by Rev. Dr. Eddy. A parsonage was erected in 1873. On account of many removals and the large German population that has come in, the membership has been materially reduced.

The United Brethren in Christ effected an organization here September 8, 1858, and at once commenced the erection of a church building, which was soon afterwards completed, and was the first house of worship in the place. The house was used by

i. Elisha,^{4} b. 5 July 1732; d. unm. 17 Apr. 1797. He served in the French and Indian War as a private in the Seventh Company, Fourth Connecticut Regiment, in 1755, as corporal in the same company in 1756, and for eighteen days in 1757 as a private in Captain Woodruff's militia. He bequeathed his entire estate by will to his "nephew Abel Waters," having previously (on 26 Apr. 1788) given two deeds of property at Quaker's Farm [Oxford] to "Abel Waters son of Hannah Oatman wife of Samuel Oatman" (Derby Deeds, vol. 11, p. 242, and vol. 12, p. 347).

ii. Deborah, d. at Oxford 3 Jan. 1786; m. David Fabrique.

iii. Ann, b. about 1741; d. s.p. in 1815, aged 74; m. after 23 Nov. 1772, as his second wife, Elnathan Lake of Oxford, who d. in 1814, aged 75.§

*The Wooster Genealogy makes this Edward the son of a fictitious Abraham and grandson of Abraham (5). Since this is the line of the compiler of that publication, the later descendants of Edward are probably correctly set forth therein (pp. 30–39).

†By church record 17 Sept. 1790. Administration on her estate was granted 29 Sept. 1790.

‡The Morse Genealogy, by J. Howard Morse and Emily W. Leavitt (New York, 1903), Part I, Section 5, p. 12, correctly places Ann as daughter of Sergt. William Moss, but gives her birth date as 28 Oct. 1731, this being actually the date of her marriage. Her age at death would place her birth four years prior to her father's marriage to Abigail (Nichols) Riggs, and it is practically certain that she was his child by a former wife, whose identity has not been discovered.

§On 3 May 1784 Elisha and Joseph Wooster conveyed land, to their "sisters Anne wife of Elnathan Lake and Sarah Wooster" (Derby Deeds, vol. 11, p. 144). Ann's marriage occurred after 23 Nov. 1772, the date of her father's will. Elnathan Lake's first wife was Amy Lum, born 7 Mar. 1734/5. The will of Ann Lake, dated 29 Apr. 1815, left her estate to Elisha Oatman of Oxford.

wife's name unknown. He is on record in 1775 when he signed the Articles of Association along w/bro & father. In 1776 when census was taken to ascertain males available & eligible for Rev War service his name appears as head of household with 3 males above 16 years; 2 males under 16; one female above 16; 2 females over 16. It is probable that the older males were himself his father Nathan & his bro Nathan Jr. Silas fled as a rebel refugee in Sep 1776 from Bridgehampton to Stonington CT. Capt Ephraim Pendleton of Westerly RI made claim for payment by the state of New York for "Freight brought from Sag Harbor to Stonington" & Silas Norris appears on that bill of lading. "For Mr Silas Norris 1 load goods 18/and 4 in family 1/6 . . . 1 pound 4 shillings." Pendleton was paid in full for his sailboat freighting of refugees & their goods at Middleton CT on 18 Mar 1778 in "lawful money of CT." (Mather's Refugees of 1776 in CT pg 878) He made 4 trips back to Long Island in Sep & Oct of 1776.
That Silas Norris was probably farmer at Bridgehampton can be deduced from this record: In Feb 1777 Silas & many other Long Island refugees living in CT petitioned governor of CT to be allowed to return to their Long Island homes to remove flax, wool & stock to CT for the use of their families. The request was denied. Although he was still living in CT he apparently felt he belonged to NY state as did so many others so in the early spring of 1777 he signed a petition to be represented at the NY state convention. He was one of 178 voters who were refugees from (Suffolk) NY then residing in CT. The petition was presented on 10 Apr 1777. It is evident that this exiled group wanted to have a part in setting up new government (Onderonk "Rev Incidents of Suffolk Co" pg 70)
When Silas Norris left CT to establish home in NJ is not known. The war was not over until 1783 so it is likely that around that time he moved w/his son Silas Jared to (Morris) NJ. Records of Silas R Norris in CT have not been found at this time.
from Refugees of 1776 from LI to CT pg 482: from Bridgehampton to Stonington & E Haddam. Sep 1776 w/4 in fam he was brought to Stonington by Capt Ephiram Pendleton & in Sep & Oct 1776 w/7 passengers to E Haddon by Capts James Harris, James Wiggins, Robert Knight & Elias Haton. In Feb 1777 he was allowed to go to LI for flax. He signed the Assoc 1775. Census of 1776: Males above 16 yrs 3; under 16 2: Females above 16 1; under 16 2.

some info from STOUT Allied Fam Vol I-1957 by H F Stout

While our direct history does not come to the present through him his role in the period just bef Rev War is intersting along w/that of his children. On 12 Aug 1735 along w/his father John he resold a 5-acre piece of land to Joseph Pierson from whom it had been purchased. On 14 Jun 1737 they sold abt 16-acres to John Russell. On 1 Mar 1742 they sold a right to 30-acres to John Norris Jr. Nathan is on record on 25 Jul 1764 when he witnessed will of Betha Bernet of Easthampton. His son Nathan Jr was also a witness (New York Wills 6:36). On 18 Jul 1765 he witnessed will in Southamnpton of Wm Mulford. At Southampton on 1 Aug 1775 Nathan Morris head of family w/Nathan Norris Jr & Silas R Norris signed together the Articles of Assocaiton which led to the Rev War. At the time of his signing Nathan Jr & Silas R had to be "from 16 yrs old and upwards" in order to participate. Nathan Norris helped start a church in Southampton & was living there on 2 Jul 1787. There is no will in NY state for Nathan Norris Sr who may have died in CT or elsewhere since he would have lost his Long Island property as a rebel. It is not definitely known whether or not he removed to CT w/other refugees. As of now nothing is known of the wife of Nathan Sr but we do have records of 2 ch Silas R & Nathan Jr.

info from Ruth Maynard of SC gives b d as abt 1719 & d date of Aug 1790
